"My name is Pam Schilling and I live in the northeast corner of Wyoming. It was by referral from another rep that I took a chance to start up a side business. We have a cow/calf operation, so there really isn't a lack of something to do. Selling restaurant-quality food to families at reasonable prices intrigued me. I'm now going on my 8th year selling food that literally sells itself!

I worked hard to build up my customer base and I'm very proud to say I have some of the best! Alison's Pantry, the company, is just awesome. Through the pandemic and after, they tried very hard to get products in and keep prices reasonable. Communication is key with them, any questions or problems that may arise, they are there to help! My sales manager, Becky Price, has helped me with so much! We have become good friends and I always enjoy our talks. Thanks to her giving me the nudges I needed, I increased my sales over the years!

Because of an awesome company and staff, I have many wonderful customers I look forward to seeing and visiting with. It is my time once a month to connect with other people and I enjoy it very, very much!"
