FROM THE FAMILY

Hello from sunny St. George, UT!

We took a short 3 day trip down to St. George to get away from the cold and enjoy some warmer temperatures.

My wife's parents joined us and we had a great time! So grateful to my wife for being a master planner and getting everything packed and planned out perfectly.

We had a lot of first time adventures while we were down there. First time visiting Zion's National Park and driving through a super-long tunnel to see some absolutely beautiful rock formations. There was so much to see down there--truly breathtaking views. First time driving a side-by-side.ooh boy, now that was fun; I could definitely get into some trouble with one of those! I've got to admit that in the past I've had a hard time wanting to go on vacations, but lately I see more and more that we all need to plan a little getaway even if it's just for a weekend. Many years ago my mom gave me a picture frame that says 'Vacations preserve life' and I thought it was a little silly, but she may be onto something. It was so fun to be together as a family, spending time doing exciting and new things.

I hope all of you have a wonderful start to 2021.
