"I'm Janet, and this is my family--husband, Judd, and four fabulous daughters. We live in Karval on the eastern plains of Colorado. My husband's family settled in the area several generations ago. We ranch here. Judd works for Lincoln County, and I am a contract Librarian when time allows. I started as an Alison's Pantry customer during the pandemic, Spring 2020. I had no interest in becoming a rep, I only wanted bulk food and to stay out of the cities. Haley Notter (another AP Rep) was patient, supportive, and kept encouraging me to think about it. We would chat at monthly pickup and she would plant little ideas that slowly took root. In time, I became a rep and the neighbors that were ordering consistently with me became my first customers. They are some of my most loyal customers. I love the opportunities that Alison's Pantry provides. It brings high quality, price-competitive food right to my community. We are 35 miles from the nearest gas station and amenities, so it provides a huge time and money savings for my neighbors and me. It gives me the opportunity to visit with neighbors on a consistent basis. I love the flexibility of being a rep and that I can continue to focus on my family as a priority. I set goals that are achievable and I can dream as big as I want. Everyone has been so supportive and excited about AP! Alison's Pantry has been a blessing to our lives and I am thankful for the opportunity to be part of a company that cares about its customers and reps so much."

In large bowl, whisk together the flour, sugar, baking powder and salt. Add the cubed butter. Using your fingers, work the butter into the flour until the mixture resembles coarse meal. Add the frozen berries and mix to combine. In small bowl, whisk together the heavy cream, egg and vanilla. Add the cream to the flour mixture and mix just until moistened. Turn the dough out onto a lightly floured surface and shape into an 8-inch disc. Cut into 8 wedges. Transfer to a parchment-lined baking sheet allowing 2-inches between each scone. Refrigerate for 15 minutes. Meanwhile, preheat oven to 400°F. Bake chilled scones for 15-20 minutes or until lightly golden brown. Allow scones to cool 10 minutes before adding icing. In small bowl, whisk together the powdered sugar and lemon juice. Drizzle over the cooled scones.
