REPRESENTATIVES NEEDED TO SERVE: Evanston, WY, Richfield, UT, & Killdeer, ND

My daughter-in-law, Heather Potter, and I have been doing Alison's Pantry together since last October and we love it! It has been a great way to spend time together while serving the community with amazing food options delivered conveniently for our remote location. We are both long time customers, and Alison's Pantry has been sold in our area by a family member for quite some time. When the opportunity came for us to do it, we took it more to keep the food available for our own families. The income it has generated has been a bonus! We love the high quality foods, and the convenience is wonderful! I haven't missed a month of ordering for years, and we are trying to build customers that also order regularly because they love the food, convenience, and price!
